Youth Pheasant Hunting Opportunity

Idaho Department of Fish and Game is working with an area landowner and the Game Bird Foundation to provide youth pheasant hunting opportunities on a 138 acre Access Yes! parcel on the Palouse River, north of Potlatch, Idaho. Eligible youth must be 15 years old or younger, possess a valid hunting license or passport, and be accompanied by a mentor (an adult 18 years or older who possesses a valid hunting license). Pheasant season is open through December 31, 2015. Sign in is required at the 138 acre property and the number of youth hunters is limited to 5 per day. For directions to the property, pick up an Access Yes! pamphlet at the Idaho Fish and Game office in Lewiston (3316 16th Street), or simply call 208-799-5010.
