LEGISLATION

Deputy Director Paul Kline provided the legislative update (Appendix 53, Exhibit 13).

On January 30 the Senate floor voted (motion by Senator Mortimer, seconded by Senator Jordan) confirmed by voice vote for Commissioner Derick Attebury confirmation. A letter will follow to the Governor informing him of the Senate action.

JFAC budget hearing, JFAC will set the Department budget on February 21.

Deputy Director Kline reviewed the Department sponsored bills SB1237 and HB330. SB1237 Swan tags and Upland Game Bird Permit will go before the House Resources & Conservation Committee on February 13. HB330 Nonresident fee increase will go before the Senate Resources & Environment Committee on February 10.

An analysis was provided for legislative bill H396 Shooting Ranges (Appendix 53, Exhibit 14). The Commission will monitor H396.

SJM 108 Columbia-Snake River System (information only)

This memorial states the legislature recognizes and supports the benefits provided by the Port of Lewiston and the Columbia-Snake river system and that Idaho has sovereignty of its waters resources. Also states that Idaho opposes the breaching of the dams on the Columbia-Snake River system and its tributaries.

The meeting adjourned at 8:30 a.m.
