Age and Gender of License Buyers

In 2019 the Idaho Legislature approved a nonresident fee increase, which was implemented concurrently with a Commission rule change allowing for further management of nonresident participation in general deer and elk hunts. The fee increase was approved to offset the expected loss in revenue due to anticipated reduction participation from nonresident hunters.

Challenges

Chronic Wasting Disease

Prevention and management of disease continues to be a priority for establishing and maintaining wildlife populations that meet management objectives. For more information please visit idfg.idaho.gov/cwd.

Depredation Claims

Depredation claims in FY20 exceeded $856,000. Fish and Game will continue to work with landowners on solutions that focus on proactive and effective approaches to reduce wildlife impacts to agriculture.

Deer and Elk Hunter Congestion

Resident hunters have expressed a growing concern about crowding in Idaho big game hunting. In response, the Commission implemented management to ensure a more even distribution of nonresident deer and elk hunters by limiting participation levels to 10-15% of hunters by elk zone or deer unit in general hunts as a first step to address concerns. Moving forward, the agency will continue to develop solutions to meet our mission as well constituent expectations.
