- All roads must remain passable for administrative traffic.
- Never block or park directly in front of any gate, livestock facility, or watering source.

Cancellation

- Use of East Idaho Grazing Assn. property by any member of the public may be revoked by East Idaho Grazing Assn. Or IDFG immediately for violation of these policies and regulations, or any violation of local, state or federal law.

Indemnity

- Permittees accept the property in its present condition, "as is". Permittees enter and use the property at their own risk. Permittees release East Idaho Grazing Assn. from all claims for any injury and agree to defend and indemnify East Idaho Grazing Assn. against any claim for injury or otherwise.
- All activities must be conducted in accordance with these General Policies and Regulations.

Safety

- Safety is the highest priority. Permittees are expected to conduct all activities with safety in mind.

Hunting

- East Idaho Grazing Assn. land is open for hunting, unless there are specific signs that say, "No Hunting".
- All local hunting regulations issued by the Idaho Department of Fish & Game must be followed.
- We do not require a special permit for hunting, but if a license, tag or permit is needed for the species you are hunting, you would need to obtain these from the Idaho Department of Fish & Game.

Good Neighbor Relations

- Respect the rights of neighboring landowners and other users.
- Shooting near campsites should only occur with the expressed consent of all campers within weapon range.
- No target shooting within one-half mile of neighboring landowners homes and buildings.
- Exploding targets, commonly known as Tannerite, are prohibited on East Idaho Grazing Assn. property.
- Hunters need to show extraordinary caution when within weapon range of buildings, and livestock.

Recognizing East Idaho Grazing Assn. Ownership

- Users recognize that East Idaho Grazing Assn. owns property for the purpose of a natural resource business that includes grazing, ranching and similar activities. East Idaho Grazing Assn. also reserves the right to sell the property at any time. Recreating on East Idaho Grazing Assn. property is a privilege. Recreation use of East Idaho Grazing Assn. property does not include any activities not identified in section 1.3 above. The public may not enter the property for any other purpose and shall not interfere with East Idaho Grazing Assn. management of the property.

Ethics and responsibility

- The future of recreation privileges on East Idaho Grazing Assn. property depends on how Permittees behave in the field, and how they present themselves to others. Consider how your actions reflect on yourself and the outdoor recreation community in general.

Camping

- Camping is allowed for a maximum 14-day limit within a 30-day period.
- Campers must keep campsites 25 feet from stream banks and open water (including tethering for pack animals).
- Campsites are not exclusive or guaranteed.
