Special Events:

We host seasonal events at the Nature Center, including International Migratory Bird Day (late spring) and Idaho Salmon and Steelhead Days (usually in early September). Volunteers assist with set up and break-down, customer service, and educational activities. Special events are ideal as a once or twice a year volunteer opportunity.

Volunteer Groups:

We can often accommodate groups of up to 20 individuals for outdoor work projects. We prefer to schedule groups at least three weeks in advance. Projects may be weather dependent.

Students:

We support student community service and service-learning projects when projects exist. *We request that volunteers under the age of 14 have adult participation during volunteer service.
