Anglers must cease daily fishing for all Chinook Salmon (including jacks) once they have retained their daily bag limit or possession limit of adult Chinook Salmon or otherwise meet their daily bag limit or possession limit of adults and jacks, whichever comes first.

Methods of Take

Barbless Hook
Up to 3 points
on one shank.

Single-Pointed Hook
One point on one shank

Barbless hook

- A Only barbless hooks may be used when fishing for salmon. Bending the barb(s) down to the shank of a single, double, or treble hook will meet this requirement.
- B Bait is allowed on the Upper Salmon and Lochsa rivers when fishing for Chinook Salmon.

Harvest Rules

In the Upper Salmon River only Chinook Salmon with a clipped adipose fin as evidenced by a healed scar may be harvested.

Chinook salmon with an unclipped adipose fin MUST be released in the Upper Salmon River. Clipped or unclipped Chinook Salmon may be harvested in the Lochsa River.

- C No person shall have in the field or in transit a hatchery-produced adult anadromous salmon that has been processed by removing the head and tail unless the following conditions are met:
  1. the fish has been recorded on the taker's salmon permit
  2. the fish is processed and packaged with the skin naturally attached to the flesh including the portion with a healed, clipped, adipose fin scar (or adipose fin for fish harvested from the Lochsa River); and
  3. it must be packaged in a manner that the number of fish harvested can readily be determined. No person shall process salmon until they are ashore and done fishing for the day. No person shall transport processed salmon via boat. Jack salmon may not be processed while in the field or in transit. Any processed salmon count towards an angler's possession limit while in the field or in transit.
- D All salmon that are hooked, landed and reduced to possession must be killed immediately after landing and shall be counted in the limits of the person hooking the fish.

Releasing Fish

Any salmon that is landed but not reduced to possession must be released. Anglers should strive to minimize handling and stress on each fish caught and released.

Permit Validation

New for 2024 - You can now validate your salmon permit via electronic tagging (e-tagging) on your cell phone. For details go to idfg.idaho.gov/licenses/e-tagging.

When an adult Chinook Salmon has been hooked, landed and reduced to possession, the angler hooking the fish must immediately:

- A Validate their salmon permit electronically using the GoOutdoorsID Application (if using e-tagging).

OR

- B Write in the space provided, the month and day the fish was harvested; and
- C Look up the location code number from the list below or their salmon permit and write it in the space provided.

Note:

- When a salmon is released unharmed, as in catch-and-release fishing, the angler is not required to make an entry on the permit.
- Anglers may retain salmon less than 24 inches in length as part of their bag and possession limit but they are not required to record them on their permit.

For example, a salmon equal to or greater than 24 inches in length kept from the Upper Salmon River in the section from the posted boundary above the mouth of Valley Creek upstream to the posted boundary below Sawtooth weir on June 23 would be entered as:

FISH	MONTH DAY	LOCATION CODE	MONTH DAY	LOCATION CODE	FISH
1	06/23	19			21
2					22
